

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

The English Department at CSU is a vibrant & welcoming community.

We are home to poets and linguists, literacy researchers and teacher educators, novelists and literary scholars, composition specialists and writers of creative nonfiction. Join us in studying how people process and document the human experience through critical literacy, interdisciplinary thinking, and culturally informed interpretive skills. Our newly envisioned major encourages you to explore the connections between the many fields housed in English Studies. Engage in transforming your understanding of what it means to be human through inquiry, imagination, and the development of insight. Be actively involved in the deliberate work of leading a meaningful life.
